January-May 2016

An Exciting Spring Programme of Entertainment!

As we say farewell to 2015, we prepare for an exciting, action-packed 2016 at Airdrie Town Hall and Motherwell Concert Hall and Theatre.

In 2015, we welcomed some big names, local talent and familiar faces from comedy and music from across the UK and beyond. We hope you enjoyed some fun-filled performances and made some lasting memories. If you thought 2015 was good, wait till you see what we have planned for 2016!

We can't wait to welcome some fantastic musical talent including Heather Small, Lulu and Nathan Carter, as well as some spectacular tribute acts such as One and Only Direction and Rule the World – Take That Tribute.

We have some guaranteed laughter with comedian Phil Differ and Dirty Dusting, a heart-warming comedy that will have you rolling in the aisles! Or if it's family fun you're looking for, The Chris & Pui Show is sure to hit the spot with songs, comedy sketches and a dash of magic – fun for all the family!

If you're looking for something different, why not check out one of our mediums. Luke Danskin and June Field amaze at Motherwell Theatre and Angel Anne returns to Airdrie Town Hall.

It's sure to be a great year! To book any of our shows, call our box office on 01698 403120 or visit culturenl.co.uk

Circus of Horrors – Welcome to the Carnevil

Motherwell Concert Hall

Sunday 7 February, 7.30pm

Tickets £22, £18 concession, £15 back of stalls

The show that stormed into the finals of Britain's Got Talent, now a West End smash hit is back to mark its 21st Anniversary in spectacular style!

The latest incarnation 'Welcome to the Carnevil' is set in Victorian London in 1899, during a time when Jack the Ripper was still at large. A young girl dreams of running away to join the Circus only to see her dream become a nightmare in a decrepit and corpse ridden 'carnevil', plagued by a swamp of Killer Klowns, Sword Swallowers, Death Defying Aerialists, Fire Limboing Acrobats and lots more!

The story twists and turns with grisly murders and sensational shocks – all interwoven with some of the greatest and most bizarre circus acts on earth. A show ruled by the undead and climaxing in an awesome flaming apocalypse.

Rule the World – Take That Tribute

Motherwell Concert Hall

Friday 26 February, 7.30pm

Tickets £13, £10 for groups of 10 +

Rule The World have been recognised as the world's number one Take That tribute band, recently appearing alongside Nicole Kidman, Hugh Bonneville, Julie Walters and the real Take That on BBC1's 'The Graham Norton Show'. After hearing Dan Maines speak, a stunned Gary Barlow said in amazement, "He sounds like me!" and praised the band's performance.

Rule The World have also been featured on ITV1's 'Daybreak' and have received rave reviews from notable celebrities including TV personality Ricky Tomlinson, Denise Van Outen, and Mr Gary Barlow himself, who tweeted the band to say he thought they are "brilliant".

The show is an accurate portrayal of a Take That concert and features all the biggest hits including 'Never Forget', 'Greatest Day', 'Back For Good', 'Relight My Fire', 'Everything Changes', 'Shine', 'Pray' and many more!

Two course pre-theatre meals and Prosecco packages available before the show from £10 per person. Visit culturenl.co.uk for more information.

Parton Sings Parton
Motherwell Concert Hall
Saturday 27 February, 7.30pm
Tickets £23.50

This wonderful show brings the story of growing up in East Tennessee, surrounded by music and laughter as experienced by the Parton family.

Starring hit recording singer/songwriter and actress Stella Parton, sister of international superstar Dolly Parton.

Stella will take us back to her roots, with stories of her and Dolly growing up in Tennessee. Performing her own hits with her band, including 'Danger Of A Stranger', 'I Want To Hold You In My Arms Tonight', 'Standard Lie Number One' and 'Undercover Lovers', plus many of Dolly's hits and songs written by other members of the Parton family.

Heather Small

Motherwell Concert Hall

Thursday 3 March, 7.30pm

Tickets £25

After selling several million records, winning two Brit Awards and the Mercury Music Prize, Heather Small is one of the most successful female recording artists of recent years.

As part of M People, hits such as 'Moving On Up', 'One Night In Heaven' and 'Search For The Hero', Heather became one of the seminal British voices of the 1990s. The band won the Best British Dance Act Award at the Brits in 1994 and 1995, as well as the Mercury Music Prize.

Heather has since had great successes with two solo albums and continues to perform to audiences around the globe, including headlining the world-famous Sydney Mardi Gras in 2013 and reuniting with M People for a very special 20th Anniversary tour the same year.

A night not to be missed by 90s music fans.

An Evening with Phil Differ

Motherwell Theatre
Saturday 6 March, 7.30pm
Tickets £10, £9 concession

Comedy writer, producer, director and comedian Phil Differ presents an evening of two halves. In the first, stand-up comedy and in the second, showbiz tales from a career spanning 35 years.

In his own inimitable laid back style, Phil reminisces on his misspent youth, discusses the problems of being a middle-aged man trapped in a 20 year old's body and reveals how you go from being a failed accounts clerk with British Telecom to becoming Senior Producer in BBC Scotland's Comedy Unit, responsible for such television shows as City Lights, Rab C. Nesbitt and Only an Excuse?

So, what's it like working with comedy icons like Rikki Fulton? Who is the funniest of all the performers he has encountered? What might be the pitfalls of filming in Cumbernauld Town Centre with Robbie Coltrane dressed as the Pope? Phil will reveal all... Provided there aren't any lawyers present!

Sunshine on Leith

Airdrie Town Hall

Tuesday 15 – Saturday 19 March,

7.30pm, Saturday matinee 3pm

Tickets £16, £12 concession

Following their recent sell-out performances of Calamity Jane and All Shook Up, ACAOS return to Airdrie with the Lanarkshire Amateur Premier of Sunshine on Leith.

From writer, Stephen Greenhorn, Sunshine on Leith features the songs of The Proclaimers and follows the highs and lows of Ally and his friend Davy as they return home to Leith from the army.

Families, friendships and life are not all plain sailing in this funny and moving story about love and life. Sunshine on Leith is a vibrant, energetic piece of musical theatre, loved by audiences and critics alike.

Act of Faith presents New Day

Motherwell Theatre
Friday 18 – Saturday 19
March, 7.30pm
Tickets £10

In January 2015, a team of young people from Cartsbridge Evangelical Church performed an original, contemporary musical, 'An Act of Faith'. Following its success, they decided to take another step of faith to perform 'New Day', an inspiring story of an ordinary man who is challenged by situations life throws at him.

The production team, cast, music and storyline are 'new', but the enthusiasm to share their faith remains the same.

An inspirational evening which may cause you to consider each day in a new light!

The Story of Guitar Heroes

Motherwell Theatre
Friday 1 April, 7.30pm
Tickets £20, £18 concession

"If you like music and guitars you will LOVE this show!"

Jimi Hendrix, Eric Clapton, Hank Marvin, Brian May and Slash are just some of the outstanding guitar heroes you will have the chance to experience in one amazing show!

This outstanding live concert style 'rockumentary' will be performed by one extraordinarily talented renowned musician, Phil Walker, and backed by his exceptional band.

With over 20 guitars used on stage, Phil and his band will recreate the sound and ambiance of each guitar hero. Taking you on a journey through the decades, the show includes the first legends of the Rock 'n' Roll era in the 1950s, through to the most creative and inspirational modern guitar heroes of today.

An exceptional night of music not to be missed!

An Evening with Lulu

Motherwell Concert Hall

Monday 4 April, 7.30pm

Tickets £35

The incredible Lulu still has plenty to shout about and is back with another fantastic tour. The Grammy-nominated singer will be performing hits from her 50 year career, such as 'To Sir With Love', 'The Man Who Sold The World', 'Relight My Fire', and of course 'Shout'.

As well as performing songs from some of her musical heroes, such as soul legends, Ray Charles and Otis Redding, she will also be taking us on a musical journey recalling personal anecdotes, song writing experiences and other entertaining stories.

A night guaranteed to leave you wanting more!

Nathan Carter

Motherwell Concert Hall

Friday 8 April,

7.30pm

Tickets £24

Nathan is a huge attraction on the Irish music scene and has attracted a new generation of fans of all ages to Country music in Ireland.

'Wagon Wheel', the single taken from the album of the same name has become a huge hit for Nathan, with over a million hits on Youtube. The wheels continue to roll for this special song, which can now be heard in clubs, discos and dancehalls, and on all major national Irish radio stations.

Nathan's fifth and current album, 'Where I Wanna Be', has just recently reached the coveted no.1 position in the Irish charts and his new 'Live in Concert DVD' has just been filmed on location in Letterkenny.

'Ireland's No.1 Country Singer' will return to Motherwell for a gig that is sure not to disappoint his loyal fans.

The Chris & Pui Show

Motherwell Theatre

Sunday 10 April, 11am and 2pm

Tickets £12, £10 concession, £40 family ticket

CBeebies' favourite double act is coming to town!

Chris & Pui from 'Show Me Show Me' will be joined on stage with the toys and characters from their hit TV programme in an entertaining show for all the family.

Incy Wincy, Twinkle, Old MacDonald, Humpty, Granny Humpty and many more of your favourite Chris & Pui characters will be dropping in along with the toys – Tom, Momo, Teddington, Stuffie and Miss Mouse.

Catch the 'Gingerbread Man', marvel at the 'Ugly Duckling' becoming a beautiful swan and ooh and aaah as Miss Mouse attempts to zoom zoom zoom to the cheesy moon in her rocket. With songs, comedy sketches, a dash of magic and heaps of joining in, this is a family show for children aged two to those aged a hundred and two.

Isla Grant

Airdrie Town Hall

Thursday 14 April, 7.30pm

Tickets £17, £16 concession

Isla Grant was born in Wigtownshire, Scotland, eventually settling in the Scottish Borders. Her love of music began at an early age and at the age of fourteen, she started to sing in folk clubs, changing her style after discovering Country music.

After eleven albums, some of which have gone triple platinum, Isla decided to branch out and released her first album on her own label (I.G.E.) in October 2008.

Isla now returns to Airdrie Town Hall with her five piece band and will be performing some of her songs recorded by Daniel O'Donnell and Reba McEntyre amongst others.

Don't miss this enchanting evening of Isla's hit songs.

One and Only Direction

Airdrie Town Hall

Sunday 17 April, 7.30pm

Tickets £12.00, £10 concession
(meet and greet tickets available, £15 each)

Following on from the success of the sell-out concert in 2015, Airdrie Supporters Trust are delighted to announce that One and Only Direction will return to perform at Airdrie Town Hall.

The boys will be ably supported by Britain's premier Ed Sheeran tribute act, Ross Mitchell, and Airdrie's very own Dance Fuzion. Tickets are guaranteed to be snapped up fast.

Their commitment to authenticity delivers high-energy replica stage shows that leave audiences roaring for more. Onlookers will be doing double-takes as the 1D doppelgangers command the stage performing the band's vast catalogue of worldwide smash hit songs. A night filled with the confidence, charisma, cheekiness and vocal performances that only One Direction themselves could rival!

Meet and greet tickets are available to give you the chance to meet the band and get seats in the front three rows. These tickets were sold out within a week at the 2015 event, so please book early to avoid disappointment!

Meet and greet tickets are £15 and under 16s must be accompanied by an adult.

Luke Danskin
PSYCHIC MEDIUM

June Field
Spiritual Bridge Builder / International Medium

Luke Danskin & June Field

Airdrie Town Hall

Friday 29 April, 7.30pm

Tickets £17.50, £16.50 until end of January 2016

Luke Danskin and June Field are bringing their astonishing interactive show to Airdrie as part of the 'Connections from Heaven Tour'.

Although Luke's live shows are full of emotion, his natural warmth and endearing personality makes audiences feel completely at ease. Passionate in encouraging people to celebrate the lives of their loved ones in spirit, laughter is a common theme in Luke's shows.

Luke will share the night with June Field, who has amazed audiences with her specific contacts and evidence that our loved ones are still with us.

Having been born with the gift of sight, June proves that life goes on by allowing loved ones to cross over and connect through her.

Don't miss your chance to see these two phenomenal mediums in action!

Please note, this event is for the purpose of entertainment. Age 16 and over.

Angel Anne

Motherwell Theatre

Thursday 12 May, 7.30pm

Tickets £17.50, £15 concession

Angel Anne returns to Motherwell Theatre with her bubbly and lively personality to take those receiving a communication from the unseen world on a trip down memory lane.

As a third generation medium, Angel Anne is regularly featured in national press, radio and TV. She brings forth the characteristics and personality of the communicator as well as hard evidence, fact after fact, to the recipient. A fun and uplifting night guaranteed.

Dirty Dusting

Motherwell Theatre

Sunday 15 May, 7.30pm

Tickets £21

After a sell-out UK tour, Dirty Dusting returns to the stage in 2016 to treat you to a heart-warming comedy that will have you rolling in the aisles!

Three cleaning ladies (past their sell by date), start up a telephone sex line – ‘The Telephone Belles’ – a dirty sex chat line that really cleans up!

Gladys, Elsie and Olive are about to be “put out to pasture” by their overzealous office manager Dave. Feeling they have little chance of gaining employment elsewhere, the ladies have to boost their falling income! Needless to say, things don’t go entirely according to plan.

A night of comedy sure to leave your sides aching!

Voodoo Room

Motherwell Theatre

Friday 20 May, 7.30pm

Tickets £12

Paying tribute to two of the greatest names in rock history, Jimi Hendrix and Cream, Voodoo Room are a stunning power trio featuring some of the UK's finest musicians, performing an incredible show in the true spirit of these legendary superstars. NOT a pantomime dress up tribute act - simply great music played by great musicians!

Enjoy classic tracks from both artists, from ‘Sunshine of Your Love’ to ‘Purple Haze’.

Members of Voodoo Room have played with Stevie Winwood, Duran Duran, Ben E. King, Fish and Thunder, among many others. With standing ovations the norm, word on the street is Voodoo Room are not to be missed!

The Orbison Story – 80th Birthday Special

Motherwell Theatre

Saturday 21 May, 7.30pm

Tickets £20

Barry Steele takes you on this specially revamped musical journey in this special celebratory production to mark Roy Orbison's 80th birthday.

The celebration of The Big O's musical legacy is quite simply unmissable! Including star guest tributes to those who toured and performed with Roy, an incredible fusion of 60's Solid Gold classics and contemporary musical genius from two very distinct decades.

Set to be a truly special show that celebrates the master's legacy, with 'Barry Steele & Friends'.

Eric Bibb

Motherwell Concert Hall

Tuesday 24 May, 7.30pm

Tickets £28.50

A career spanning five decades, 36 albums, countless radio and television shows and non-stop touring has made Eric Bibb one of the leading bluesmen of his generation.

A progressive preservationist, a fiery singer with true Soul, Gospel and Folk roots, enjoyable and accessible, Eric's blues are honest and powerful.

Performing live on stage with his band, Eric will be joined by Yana Bibb who will open the night with her latest release, 'Afternoon in Paris'.

A show that will offer fans a soulful and uplifting evening.
