

Weddings

To have and to hold from this day forward

A Century of celebration

Couples have been having weddings at Airdrie Town Hall for the past 100 years.

This beautiful Edwardian venue has recently been restored and refurbished, making this an ideal wedding venue in the heart of Lanarkshire.

If you wish your wedding to be an intimate gathering or a lavish event, our dedicated wedding team can help, and will give you and your guests memories to last a life time.

Love and marriage

The venue

Perfect for large and small weddings we can tailor your wedding to suit your requirements.

The Lesser Hall holds up to 108 guests and is ideal for a smaller wedding or an intimate ceremony.

The main hall holds up to 240 guests, ample space for every wedding reception.

We also have dressing rooms for hire, where you and your wedding party can get ready for your big day.

Eat, drink and be merry...

Catering and bar

Our professional catering team pride themselves on their high quality catering and drinks service. With various set menus to suit any budget, the team will create a bespoke package ensuring your special day is one to remember at this historic venue.
