May-September 2017

Free Entertainment Guide

We continue an action-packed 2017 with a fantastic programme of music, theatre and comedy, with big names, local talent and familiar faces at Airdrie Town Hall and Motherwell Concert Hall and Theatre.

If you want to be ROFL, we host our laugh out loud comedy club, The Therapy Room, with great local talent, as well as one-liner show-stoppers, Jimmy Carr and Stewart Francis.

Whether you're a toe-tapper, hip-swinger or head-banger, we've got you covered this season with amazing music at your favourite Lanarkshire music venue. Younger music fans will love the Justin Bieber Experience in June. Classic rock fans with love "Motherwell Rocks" with MacFloyd, Voodoo Room, AC/DC UK and The Led Zeppelin Story. Also performing is 60s legends The Searchers, and talking of legends, you won't want to miss Legends of American Country. If you're into folk music, we've got Irish folks artists The Fureys, as well as Aly Bain and Phil Cunningham and Donna Taggart.

Theatre lovers can have a laugh with Seriously Dead, lose themselves in Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf and A Streetcar Named Desire, or check out local talent from Shine Youth Theatre's Annie.

For a spiritual experience, come to Motherwell and see sensational psychic duo, Luke Danskin and June Field, as well as popular TV psychic Tony Stockwell.

Last, but by no means least, we have our Summer Holiday Cinema at Airdrie Town Hall. Check the website for details.

The Therapy Room Friday 12 May, 8pm Motherwell Concert Hall Tickets £10

John Scott is the comedian that Donald Trump loves to hate. In fact, The Donald has been involved in a Twitter spat with the Scottish comedian, which has seen him retreat to The Whitehouse.

Father Stone from Father Ted has left his dog collar behind, and morphed into a comedy legend known as Michael Redmond, "the funny man from Craggie Island" With a comedy persona that is only matched by his hilarious material, Michael Redmond will have you buckled with laughter.

Farmer Jim Smith is more likely to turn up for a gig in a tractor rather than a BMW with wellies rather than showbiz spats. This farmer is the real deal.

MC for the evening is Patrick Rolink, a man with an appetite for more than comedy! Patrick has worked all over the world from California to Cowdenbeath...but loves gigging in Motherwell Theatre due to the town's excellent takeaways!

MacFloyd Friday 12 May, 7.30pm Motherwell Concert Hall Tickets £15

MacFloyd return to Motherwell Concert Hall with their new show for 2017. The show will celebrate the 40th Anniversary of Pink Floyd's 'Animals' album, performed live in its entirety and including favourites such as 'Dark Side Of The Moon', 'Wish You Were Here', 'The Wall' and many more. In a show lasting over two hours, fans will enjoy an impressive light and laser display, alongside stunning visual effects. You too can be part of the journey; if only for one night. Enjoy the ride!

Seriously Dead

Saturday 13 May, 7.30pm Motherwell Theatre Tickets £21

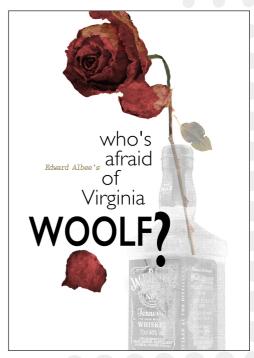

From the people that brought you Dirty Dusting, comes Seriously Dead, a new comedy starring Crissy Rock (Benidorm and I'm A Celebrity), Frazer Hines (Emmerdale and Doctor Who), Leah Bell, Billy Pearce

Seriously Dead is a brand new musical play and a definite laugh out loud comedy combining a terrific musical score with a cleverly written plot, blending drama, comedy, pathos and farce into one hilarious night.

A marathon night of drink, debauchery and duplicity ensues as Martha, and her husband, George, invite unsuspecting young couple, Nick and Honey, for a nightcap at their home. The drinks flow, spiked with acerbic wit and tempestuous verbal sparring. However, as night turns to morning, haunting secrets are revealed! The acclaimed Rapture Theatre returns, with a rare, not-to-be missed opportunity, to see one of the great iconic masterpieces of American theatre.
