Make autumn awesome and winter wonderful with our latest shows!

The nights are getting longer, but Motherwell Concert Hall and Airdrie Town hall have just the thing to brighten your day! With a mix of national treasures, big names and stars of the stage, our latest programme has something for everyone.

Sprinkling stardust on Motherwell Concert Hall this season is Scottish siren Lulu, as she performs hits old and new with her All About the Music Tour.

Theatre lovers are further spoilt for choice with domestic drama A Street Car Named Desire, football fun in The Lions of Lisbon, and magical musicals like All Shook Up.

Washing all of this down is the Motherwell Beer Festival, which will showcase not just the best in global ale, but also the best in local bands.

But it's not all about the adults, this season kids can sing-along with Funbox: Underwater Adventure, and read-along with Don't Dribble on the Dragon show.

Family fun doesn't get any better than Motherwell Theatre's annual Christmas panto, and this year it's Jack and the Beanstalk. With Ian Sheepie Smith back on board, tickets are going fast, so book now because it's gonnae be a belter!
