SUPREME QUEEN
FRIDAY 15 FEBRUARY

culturenl.co.uk

START THE NEW YEAR ON A HIGH WITH OUR LATEST SHOWS!

We're kicking off 2019 with an action-packed programme of music, theatre and comedy; with a mix of big names, local talent and familiar faces taking the stage at Airdrie Town Hall and Motherwell Concert Hall and Theatre!

Whether you're a toe-tapper, hip swinger or head-banger, we've got you covered this season with amazing music at your favourite Lanarkshire music venues. Classic rock fans will love The Story of Guitar Heroes, Supreme Queen and The Complete Stone Roses. While those into country and folk music will enjoy Irish folk duo Foster and Allen as well as Nathan Carter, Eddi Reader and Michael English. Bringing us back into the groove of the swinging 60s this season, is Bee Gees tribute show Jive Talkin and 60s legends, The Searchers who will be touring for the last and final time after more than 50 years.

Theatre lovers can laugh their socks off with Menopause the Musical, lose themselves in Crooners and Gaelforce Dance, or be transported to a by-gone age of glamorous soirées and waltzes in A Viennese Strauss Gala. They can also check out local talent from Shine Youth Theatre in their production of Footloose and The Lion, The Witch and The Wardrobe.

For family fun, there is the fantastic Dear Zoo, bringing to life the best-selling children's classic as well as returning favourites, The McDougalls Safari Adventure and panto star Ian 'Sheepie' Smith in Treasure Island, our Easter Eggstravaganza.

Last, but by no means least, our Cinema Live offering at Airdrie Town Hall continues with live screenings of performances from The Royal Opera House and The Royal Ballet, including La Traviata, La Forza Del Destino and Don Quizote. THE GHOSTING OF RABBIE BURNS

DATE: Friday 25 January, 7.30pm
TICKETS: £15 / Concession £14

MOTHERWELL THEATRE

Heartbroken author Ariel Winters takes herself away to her aunt's old cottage in Ayrshire to get over her cheating ex. As she celebrates Burns night alone, wishing that the right man would show up, she gets a visitation slightly different than what she'd hoped for. The ghost of Rabbie Burns appears to give her some dating advice – and he knows what he's talking about!

Featuring the great songs and poems of Burns, such as My Love is Like a Red Red Rose, Ae Fond Kiss, Charlie is my Darlin and of course Auld Lang Syne, this hilarious new comedy proves that love and relationships haven't changed that much in 200 years after all.

Join us for haggis, neeps and tatties before the show. To book, visit culturenl.co.uk

CINEMA LIVE: LA TRAVIATA

DATE: Wednesday 30 January, 6.45pm
TICKETS: £15 / Concession £12.50 / Under 12s £10

AIRDRIE TOWN HALL

Live via satellite to Airdrie Town Hall Cinema. From the thrill of unexpected romance to a heartbreaking reconciliation that comes too late – Verdi's La Traviata is one of the most popular of all operas. Alfredo falls in love with the courtesan Violetta in glamorous Paris society, but underneath the surface run darker undercurrents, leading to a tragic ending. The opera's wealth of melodies includes the famous Brindisi and the exuberant 'Sempre Libera' – both showing the lyricism of Italian opera at its most immediately appealing. Richard Eyre's production for The Royal Opera brings out all the emotional colour, from the giddy discovery of love, through painful confrontation to the inevitable conclusion. Lavish period sets and costumes enhance the reality of a moving story based on true life. Approximate running time: 3 hours 35 minutes, including two intervals. Sung in Italian with English subtitles.

A VIENNESE STRAUSS GALA

DATE: Saturday 26 January, 7.30pm
TICKETS: £20

MOTHERWELL THEATRE

Theatre Productions bring you a new production of this ever popular show, A Viennese Strauss Gala. Recreating the romance of the Viennese Festive season, reminding you of a bygone age of glamorous soirees and Strauss waltzes. The show features highlights from some of the great Operettas of the Strauss family, Kalman and Lehar; including Die Fledermaus, The Merry Widow and many more. The European Orchestral Ensemble will accompany four soloists from major Opera companies; including Opera North, English National Opera and D'Oyly Carte. This wonderful production is cleverly staged and choreographed, and authentically costumed, and will appeal to the romantic as much as the music aficionado. It continues to be hugely popular all over the country.

SOLD OUT

THE VACCINES

DATE: Wednesday 30 January, 7.30pm

TICKETS: Tickets: £22.50 (subject to booking fee)

MOTHERWELL CONCERT HALL

Following their outstanding 2018 UK tour, which saw them play to sold out crowds across the country, The Vaccines will return to play 11 dates at the start of the new year, with this being their only Scottish date.

2018 saw the highly anticipated return of The Vaccines with their critically acclaimed fourth album, Combat Sports. Catch the band performing singles from the album including I Can't Quit and Your Love Is My Favourite Band.

GAELFORCE DANCE

DATE: Friday 8 February, 7.30pm

TICKETS: £24 / Concession £22

MOTHERWELL CONCERT HALL

Gaelforce Dance is the story of two lovers, Lorcan and Aisling who, as our tale begins, are blissfully unaware of the passion that will erupt between them, leading the lovers into a whirlpool of forbidden love and their community into a cauldron of hate. As the story begins, a chance meeting sparks the ill-fated affair where broken loyalties and jealousy tear two brothers apart. Only after the ultimate tragedy are the brothers once more united. Produced by Michael Durkan and choreographed by Richard Griffin, Gaelforce Dance is a highly acclaimed show that expertly weaves intricate choreography, thundering rhythms, enchanting melodies and a compelling storyline into a stirring tale of love, passion and tragedy.

THE STORY OF GUITAR HEROES

DATE: Friday 8 February, 7.30pm

TICKETS: £21 / Concession £19

MOTHERWELL THEATRE

Jimi Hendrix, Eric Clapton, Hank Marvin, Brian May and Slash are just some of the outstanding guitar heroes you will have chance to experience in one amazing show! This phenomenal live concert style 'rockumentary' is performed by the extraordinarily talented and renowned musician, Phil Walker, and his exceptional band. With over 20 guitars used on stage, the show accurately recreates the sound and ambiance of each guitar hero, starting from the 1950's to the present day.

The show also offers the very latest in video screen technology to create a larger than life event. Compounded in a creative and powerful experience, this show not only appeals to all those budding guitar heroes out there, but to music lovers of all ages.

BUDDY HOLLY AND THE CRICKETERS: NOT FADE AWAY TOUR 1959-2019

DATE: Saturday 9 February, 7.30pm
TICKETS: £20 / Concession £18

MOTHERWELL THEATRE

To commemorate Buddy's anniversary and to celebrate the joy he has brought millions of people worldwide for over 60 years, the country's first and best-loved Buddy Holly act, Buddy Holly and The Cricketers, play a very special show in venues all over the UK.

Buddy Holly and The Cricketers has delighted audiences across the globe from Cardiff to California, Barking to Bangkok and Swindon to Sweden for the past 26 years.

The show stars some of the finest actor-musicians in the UK and was endorsed as Britain's most popular Buddy Holly act when the boys guested on BBC One's Saturday night live programme, The One and Only, hosted by Graham Norton.

Authentic arrangements, driving rhythms, energetic performances and wonderful musicianship, all delivered with charm and humour. Whatever the season, whatever the excuse to party, make your heartbeat a little faster with the show that has thousands of fans the world over saying, "I can't believe it's not Buddy!"

AIRDRIE TOWN HALL

Now one of the most recognisable tribute bands in the world, Supreme Queen continue to take things to a whole different level with their homage to the great days of one of the planet's greatest ever rock bands. Since their formation in the nineties, Supreme Queen have played to hundreds of thousands of Queen fans across the world, and headlining at major events including 10,000 people at St. Tropez's International Queen Convention and similarly stunning venues in Singapore, Malta and Portugal. Join Supreme Queen for a night of iconic hits.

MENOPAUSE THE MUSICAL

DATE: Thursday 21 and Friday 22
February, 7.30pm

TICKETS: £30

MOTHERWELL CONCERT HALL

Starring Cheryl Fergison (EastEnders), Maureen Nolan (The Nolans), Rebecca Wheatley (Casualty) and Katherine Lynch (RTÉ's Wagon's Den) this hysterical show is packed full of one-liners and parody songs about hot flushes and memory loss. An all-singing, all-dancing comedy set in a department store, where four women with seemingly nothing in common, meet by chance. They soon bond as they make fun of their woeful lives experiencing "The Change" and their problems with forgetfulness, mood swings, wrinkles, night sweats and chocolate binges. Book now for the ultimate girl's night!

CIRCUS OF HORRORS - RETURN TO THE ASYLUM

DATE: Sunday 24 February, 7.30pm

MOTHERWELL CONCERT HALL

The Circus of Horrors is back with a bang and a brand new show, Psycho Asylum. A show that includes an amazing amalgamation of acts with a rock n roll soundscape! It will have you on the edge of your seat, when not rolling on the floor with laughter.

The almighty cast that stormed into the finals of Britain's Got Talent is now a West End and worldwide hit. They will take you on a rollercoaster ride of sword swallowers, cross bow & knife throwing ultra-vixens, flaming hula hooping divas, hair hangers, strong men, whirlwind acrobats, twisted contortionists, sinister aerialists, the darkest of magic and lots, lots more. It is a circus like no other and a show you simply can't afford to miss!

CINEMA LIVE: DON QUIXOTE

DATE: Sunday 24 February, 2pm
TICKETS: £15 / Concession £12.50 /
 Under 12s £10

AIRDRIE TOWN HALL

Live via satellite to Airdrie Town Hall cinema. Cervantes's story of the bumbling knight, Martin Yates Don Quixote has inspired countless artistic interpretations. Marius Petipa choreographed this sparkling ballet about the encounters of the man from La Mancha and his faithful squire, Sancho Panza.

At its heart are virtuoso roles for the lovers Basilio and Kitri. Carlos Acosta chose this joyful classic for his first production for The Royal Ballet. His vibrant staging brings together the whole company in such roles as exuberant villagers, passionate gypsies and even fantasy flowers.

The story follows Don Quixote's picaresque journey to do deeds in honour of his imaginary noble lady, Dulcinea. Sunny, charming, funny and touching – Don Quixote is a ballet as full of uplifting emotion as it is of astonishing ballet technique. Approximate running time: 2 hours 45 minutes, including one interval.

THE SEARCHERS FAREWELL TOUR

DATE: Friday 1 March, 7.30pm
TICKETS: £24 / Concession £23

MOTHERWELL CONCERT HALL

The Searchers Farewell Concert Tour features John McNally, Frank Allen, Spencer James and Scott Ottaway. With classic hits such as, Sweets For My Sweet, Needles and Pins, Don't Throw Your Love Away; Sugar and Spice and When You Walk In The Room.

The Searchers have contributed enormously in establishing the UK as the world's leading country in the music industry.

With total record sales of more than 50 million, The Searchers have been touring the globe, entertaining audiences of all ages for more than 50 years. They have now decided to retire and this Farewell 'solo' Concert will not only include all their famous hits, but also many album tracks and well-known favourites, as well as anecdotes and reminiscences of their remarkable career.

BLUE ROSE CODE 2019 TOUR

DATE: Friday 8 March, 7.30pm
TICKETS: £16.50

MOTHERWELL THEATRE

A nomad both geographically and musically, Ross Wilson (Blue Rose Code) writes from the heart - eschewing any specific genre. The twelve new songs on The Water Of Leith, address themes of love, loss, travel, home, accepting the past and embracing the future and are painted with colours of soul, jazz, folk and pop - an eclecticism that has become a hallmark of Blue Rose Code and has seen him compared to John Martyn, Van Morrison and Tom Waits.

Blue Rose Code was recently featured on Loose Ends (BBC Radio 4), the esteemed Quay Sessions (BBC Radio Scotland), was nominated for Scots Singer Of The Year in the MG ALBA Scots Trad Music Awards 2017, won Scottish Album of the Year 2017 and was also listed as one of the Albums of the Year by The Skinny and No Depression respectively.

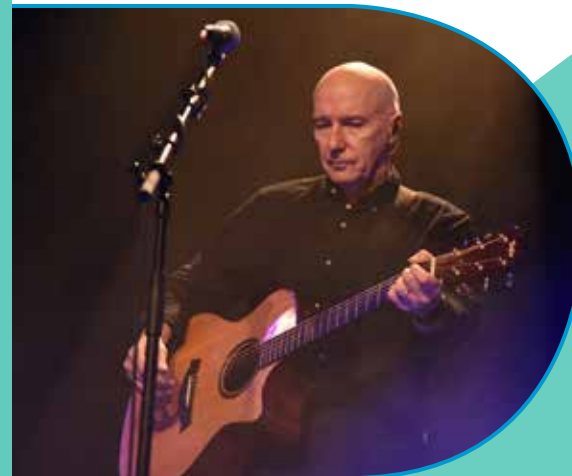

BARRY STEELE & FRIENDS - THE ROY ORBISON STORY

DATE: Friday 8 March, 7.30pm
TICKETS: £24

MOTHERWELL CONCERT HALL

Roy Orbison, the man with the sunglasses, who delivered some of the world's darkest and most emotional ballads, remains one of the most distinctive performers in modern music.

Barry Steele has been stunning audiences with his uncanny ability to recreate the vocal talents of this legendary entertainer, winning rave reviews across the globe. Now he is set to 'put the rock back into Roy' in The Roy Orbison Story, which puts a contemporary slant on Orbison's legacy. Get ready for a musical journey in time as this magnificent cast deliver a perfect combination of classic solid gold hits and contemporary genius.

MIDGE URE SONGS, QUESTIONS & ANSWERS

DATE: Saturday 9 March, 7.30pm
TICKETS: £21

MOTHERWELL CONCERT HALL

Scottish music legend Midge Ure returns to the UK theatre circuit with a special concert experience. Each show will entail a Q&A element and a musical element. Accompanying Midge are his multi instrumentalists Cole Stacey and Joe O'Keefe. Stacey and O'Keefe will also open the show playing their own original material as India Electric Company.

There is plenty to talk about while covering a 40-year professional career from Ultravox, Midge's solo work to Band Aid and his Orchestrated CD from 2017, as well as anything else the audience can think to ask him. Midge will perform songs from the Ultravox catalogue alongside his solo work. The show will be a selection of material that will satisfy the fans and please the curious. It's not often the audience gets to suggest the playlist.

ACAOS PRESENT JOSEPH AND THE AMAZING TECHNICOLOR DREAMCOAT

DATE: Tuesday 12 - Saturday 16 March, 7.30pm
& 2.30pm Saturday Matinee
TICKETS: Tickets: £17 / Concession £13

AIRDRIE TOWN HALL

ACAOS are privileged to be granted this rare opportunity to perform an all-time classic musical. Audiences worldwide are still in love with Andrew Lloyd Webber and Tim Rice's 1973 hit musical based on the story in Genesis.

Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat is the fable of lost innocence, jealousy, and the power of redemption featuring an instantly recognisable score, wild costumes, imaginative sets, and high-octane, athletic choreography. MOTHERWELL THEATRE

This very special night celebrates all things Irish (and country of course!). Michael's popularity has skyrocketed since going on the road with his band 4 years ago; packing out venues all over Ireland and the UK for both concerts and dances.

Michael and his talented band are renowned for their energetic performances, with Michael playing both his famous "red piano" and accordion at his shows. He is dedicated to giving his followers an unforgettable show each time they see him.

With accolades like at The Sunday World Country Music Awards under his belt, there is no stopping the Kildare man!

FOSTER & ALLEN

DATE: Friday 15 March, 7.30pm

TICKETS: £23 / Concession £22

MOTHERWELL CONCERT HALL

The story of Foster & Allen began back in the seventies when Mick and Tony were playing in Country Music bands around Ireland. In 1975, they got together a small group and went over to the UK to work the Irish music venues on a short tour. Mick and Tony had the idea of working together as a duo, playing 'easy listening' music with a touch of traditional Irish instrumentals. When their UK tour finished they decided to let the band return to Ireland while they stayed behind to try out the 'duo' on the public. They played several venues in London and the reaction was favourable; so they decided to remain as a duo and Foster & Allen was formed. Join Mick & Tony for an unforgettable night of classics.
