

Home Delivery

This free delivery service of books and other items is available to all Lanarkshire residents who are temporarily or permanently confined to their home due to disability, infirmity, illness or being a carer of someone affected by these conditions.

When you apply to join we will visit you at home, normally within 10 days, to ask what type of items you want to borrow; books (including large print); talking books; CDs and DVDs.

When your requirements are established we will select items to match your needs and deliver them to your home every 4 weeks. We ensure all staff or volunteers carry ID badges.

To discuss what we can do for you, please contact:

North Lanarkshire: 01698 524790

South Lanarkshire: 01698 452143
